A PASSAGE
NORTH
ANUK ARUDPRAGASAM

It begins with a message: a telephone call informing Krishan that his grandmother's former care-giver, Rani, has died in unexpected circumstances, at the bottom of a well in her village in the north, her neck broken by the fall. The news arrives on the heels of an email from Anjum, an activist he fell in love with four years earlier while living in Delhi, bringing with it the stirring of distant memories and desires. LONDON REVIEW BOOKSHOP "A Passage North is written with scrupulous attention to nuance and detail...At its centre is an exquisite form of noticing, a way of rendering consciousness and handling time that connects Arudpragasam to the great novelists of the past" Colm Toibin

ANIL'S GHOST

MICHAEL ONDAATJE

When Anil discovers that the bones found in an ancient burial site are in fact those of a much more recent victim, her search for the terrible truth hidden in her homeland begins. What follows is a story about love, about family, about identity a story driven by a riveting mystery. LONDON REVIEW BOOKSHOP "More effective than a documentary, Ondaatje's novel satisfies one of the most exalted purposes of fiction: to illuminate the human condition through pity and terror. It may well be the capstone of his career." Publisher's Weekly

BLUE SKINNED
GODS
S.J. SINDUI

In Tamil Nadu, India, a boy is born with blue skin. His father sets up an ashram, and the family makes a living off of the pilgrims who seek the child's blessings and miracles, believing young Kalki to be the tenth human incarnation of the Hindu god Vishnu. In Kalki's tenth year, he is confronted with three trials that will test his power and prove his divine status and, his father tells him, spread his fame worldwide. "This marvellous novel offers up the most extraordinary circumstance in which to live a life. What am I and what am I capable of? These pages left me with the best case of culture shock, and in awe over Sindu's storytelling talent." Devin Murphy

FUNNY BOY
SHYAM SELVADURAI

In the world of his large family - affluent Tamils living in Colombo - Arjie is an oddity, a 'funny boy' who prefers dressing as a girl to playing cricket with his brother. But as Arjie comes to terms with his own homosexuality and with the racism of the society in which he lives, Sri Lanka is plunged into civil war as fighting between the army and the Tamil Tigers gradually begins to encroach on the family's comfortable life.

MOSQUITO

ROMA TEARNE

When author Theo Samarajeeva returns to his native Sri Lanka after his wife's death, he hopes to escape his gnawing loss amid the lush landscape of his increasingly war-torn country. But as he sinks into life in this beautiful, tortured land, he also finds himself slipping into friendship with an artistic young girl, Nulani, whose family is caught up in the growing turmoil. Under the threat of civil war, their affair offers a glimmer of hope to a country on the brink of destruction...

GOOGLE BOOKS "Thought-provoking and beautifully written, Mosquito is a stunning and bittersweet portrait of a shipwrecked land, torn by the dualistic ideologies of a post-colonial people." Europa Editions

ON SAL MAL
LANE
RU FREEMAN

Sri Lanka, 1979. The Herath family has just moved to Sal Mal Lane, a quiet street disturbed only by the cries of the children whose families that live there. As the neighbours adapt to the newcomers in different ways, the children fill their days with cricket matches, romantic crushes, and small rivalries. But the tremors of civil war are mounting, and it is only a matter of time before the conflict engulfs them all and the sleepy neighbourhood erupts in violence.

BAREFOOT "Ru Freeman's new novel moves like a stage play in a dream. Dread hovers over the richness, childhood's abandon faces the crushing power of adulthood, and we live for a time in a world many of us did not imagine. And we fear what might be coming." Luis Alberto Urrea

REEF

ROMESH GUNESKERA

Reef is the moving, multi award-winning story of young Triton, a talented young chef who goes to work for Mister Salgado, a marine biologist obsessed by swamps, sea movements and the island's disappearing reef. So committed is Triton to pleasing his master's palate that he is oblivious to the political unrest threatening his Sri Lankan paradise, and yet subtle undercurrents of impending doom do ripple through Triton's haunting story of memory and friendship.

WORLD BOOK CLUB "Dark as one of Graham Greene's tropical undergrowths, funny in the way that Naipaul can be, multi-layered in the manner of Joyce, evocative as Narayan, Reef is a thing of Beauty." Alan Taylor, Scotland on Sunday

THE CEASELESS
CHATTER OF DEMONS
ASHOK FERREY

For Sonny's mother is convinced that demons possess this ugly son of hers. Demons and the devil himself circumscribe the playing field of this book, and through their clever interplay they speak of larger horrors with able grace. "This loving surprising book will enchant and amuse. It is quite simply a triumph."
Alexander McCall Smith

THE ROAD FROM ELEPHANT PASS

NIHAL DE SILVA

An army officer's routine assignment to pick up a woman informant near Jaffna turns into a nightmare when the Tigers launch a massive attack on the peninsula and the camp at Elephant Pass. The two adversaries are forced to escape together through the rebel held Wannu and later, cross the abandoned Wilpattu National Park on foot. AMAZON "...its moving story...its constant feel of real life... its consistency of narrative momentum ... its descriptive power ... its dramatic use of dialogue to define social context, capture character psychology, and trace the development of a relationship ... its convincing demonstration that resolution of conflict and reconciliation of differences are feasible through mutual experience and regard, and last though not least, for its eminently civilized handling of the last degree of intimacy between a man and a woman." Gratian Prize

THE SEVEN MOONS
OF MAALI ALMEIDA
SHEHAN KARUNATILAKA

Maali Almeida, war photographer, gambler, and closet gay, has woken up dead in what seems to be a celestial visa office. His dismembered body is sinking in the Beira Lake, and he has no idea who killed him. At a time when scores are settled by death squads, suicide bombers and hired goons, the list of suspects is depressingly long. But even in the afterlife, time is running out for Maali. He has 'seven moons' to try and contact the man and woman he loves most and lead them to a hidden cache of photos that will rock Sri Lanka. THE BOOKER PRIZE "a rollicking magic-realist take on a recent bloody period in Sri Lankan history, set in an unpeaceful afterlife. It is messy and chaotic in all the best ways...a pleasure to read: Karunatilaka writes with tinder-dry wit and an unfaltering ear for prose cadences." TLS

THE SWEET AND SIMPLE KIND

YASMINE GOONERATNE

The Gooneratnes' mountain bungalow, overlooking rippling tea plantations, is called Pemberley, after Mr Darcy's mansion. A wall plaque commemorates Elizabeth Bennet's description of it. In the style of a modern Jane Austen, Yasmine Gooneratne takes up the enduring and universal question of who will marry whom. AUSTRALIAN BOOK REVIEW "Resonant in its social insights and beautifully written, The Sweet and Simple Kind offers a richly imagined world of love, political chicanery and family turmoil in the newly independent Sri Lanka of the 1950s and 60s." Amazon.

THE VILLAGE IN THE JUNGLE
LEONARD WOOLF

This novel follows the lives of a handful of villagers hacking out a fragile existence in a jungle where indiscriminate growth, indifferent fate and malevolent neighbours constantly threaten to overwhelm them. It is as if Thomas Hardy were immersed in the heat, scent, sensuality, and pungent mystery of the tropics. Woolf ... skilfully incorporates local storytelling traditions and beliefs into his chilling narrative, to create a book which remains one of the best-loved in Sri Lanka to this day. PAPER PLUS "...it is a miracle in writing. At no time has the author's more celebrated wife, Virginia Woolf, approached this height in workmanship." Chicago Tribune

YOU'RE INVITED
AMANDA JAYATISSA

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

David Swarbrick is a publisher, planter, hotelier, hermit, and writer.

He was born in Colombo and raised, with few concessions to modernity, in India, Singapore, and the Middle East. Cornish, he gained his degrees on the Celtic fringe: at the Universities of Wales, and Stirling, prolonging an introduction to accepted working hours for as long as was decently possible.

Having worked at News Corp's HarperCollins UK as board director for various otherwise homeless departments including sales, art and marketing; and HarperCollins India, he ran Hachette's consumer learning division. Prior to this, he launched Oxford University Press's first commercial online business, Oxford Reference Online.

When the doubtful charms of boardroom bawls, bottom lines, and divas diminished, he returned to Sri Lanka, the land of his birth hundreds of years earlier, to rescue a spice plantation and set of art deco buildings that had gone feral in the jungle.

Today, as The Flame Tree Estate & Hotel, it has become one of the country's top ten boutique hotels, run by the kindest and most professional of hospitality teams; and overseen by several small schnauzers.

It also helps fund The Ceylon Press, set up to make Sri Lanka's rich and complicated story, a mystery to many, and a secret to most, more accessible. The Press' books, companions, podcasts, blogs, and guides are freely available at theceylonpress.com. The Press also publishes Poetry from the Jungle, a podcast that recasts the orthodox view of the world's best poets and poems.

ABOUT THE FLAME TREE ESTATE & HOTEL

"It's absolute paradise," wrote one guest recently; "I would fly back to Sri Lanka simply to stay in this place for a couple more days."

Centered on a 25-acre organic spice and timber plantation, The Flame Tree Estate & Hotel has been renovated and furnished with art & antiques; its healthy menus fusing street food with fine dining.

Its 1,000 high rocky hills stalled the Dutch army in 1765; and until the civil war the estate stretched over 100 acres with 3 working elephants.

Today its restored plantations grow cardamom, turmeric, ginger, cloves, pepper, cocoa; rubber, coffee, vanilla; cinnamon, coconuts - and scores of trees from ebony to sapu – best enjoyed from the vantage point of the hotel's infinity pool. Visit www.flametreeestate.com.

It also houses and funds The Ceylon Press whose books, companions, podcasts, blogs, and guides are freely available at theceylonpress.com.
